These cases are restricted to situations where the decision is necessary for entering into a contract, or for administering that contract (including deciding whether to insure you, what terms may apply and what the premium will be), where it is authorised by law or where you have provided your explicit consent, which you may withdraw at any time. Where we base a decision on solely automated decision-making you will always be entitled to have a person review the decision so that you can contest it and put your point of view and circumstances forward.

If you wish to exercise any of these rights please contact us using the details in Section 11 below. How We deal with and pay claims under this Section

Repairing Your Car

- A. Unless We are treating Your Car as a total loss (a write-off), We can choose to:
 - (i) pay You an amount to repair it;
 - (ii) pay a repairer to repair it;
 - (iii) pay an amount to the owner, if that is not You, or to the owner described in a hire-purchase or contract-hire agreement; or
 - (iv) replace Your Car, or any part or accessory from it.

- B. The most We will pay is the lesser amount of either:
 - (i) the Market Value of Your Car, less the Excess, and less the value of any remains of Your Car;
 - (ii) the amount which You insured Your Car for, less the Excess, and less the value of any remains of it; or
 - (iii) the cost of repairing Your Car, less the Excess.

- C. If any lost or damaged part or accessory is no longer available, the most We will pay is:
 - (i) the cost shown in the manufacturer's last price list, and
 - (ii) the reasonable cost of fitting.

Writing-off Your Car

- A. If We are treating Your Car as a total loss (writing-off Your Car), We can choose to:
- (i) give You an amount to replace Your Car;
 - (ii) pay an amount to the owner; if that is not You, or to the owner described in a hire-purchase or contract-hire agreement; or

- (i) the Market Value of Your Car; less the Excess, and less the value of any remains of it, or

- (i) Your Certificate of Motor Insurance;
 - (ii) Your insurance disc;
 - (iii) the vehicle registration document;
 - (iv) any certificate of roadworthiness, such as a National Car Test certificate (NCT), if Your Car is required to have one by law;
 - (v) the Car keys; and
 - (vi) any documents We ask for.

The remains of Your Car will still be Your property, unless We choose to keep them. We do not have to choose this option. The value, if any, of the remains of Your Car will be deducted from the money We are due to pay You.

Settling claims for theft

We will treat Your Car as stolen if it has not been found 28 days after You report the theft to Us. It must be still missing when We pay Your claim. You must report the theft to the Gardai or local police as soon as it is discovered, and provide Us with Your Car keys and all the documentation We ask for when You make Your claim. If Your Car is stolen and You later get it back, or discover where it is, You must tell Us immediately. If Your Car is fitted with a Tracking Device with a monitoring service, You must also inform that monitoring service immediately.

If Your Car has not been found after 28 days, We will treat it as a total loss (a write-off).

Our uninsured driver promise

If You make a claim for damage to Your Car that is the result of an accident that is not Your fault, and the driver of the other vehicle involved is not insured, You will not lose Your No Claims Discount. The costs may be recoverable from the Motor Insurers' Bureau of Ireland (MIB).

The driver of the uninsured vehicle must be identified, and You must provide Us with their name and the registration number; make and model of the vehicle that hit You, as far as You know. If there is a third claim in a consecutive 3-year period, the No Claims Discount years allowed will be reduced to zero.

While the number of No Claim Discount years allowed will not change, the percentage discount that each year represents may change and Your premium may still increase following such claims.
